BYE LAWS—CENTRAL AND REGULATION OF FLOUR AND RICE MILLS

S.R.O. 127, dated 12th Apl. 1961.—The following bye-laws for the control and proper regulation of Flour, Condiment, Oil and Rice Mills in the St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavaram Cantonment framed by the Cantonment Board St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavaram Cantonment Board in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (17), (28) and (39) of section 282 and 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924) in supersession of the bye-laws framed by the Board and published by the Central Government in the Gazette of India with No. S.R.O. 87 dated the 3rd March 1960, are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS

1. In these bye-laws (a) 'Flour, Condiment, Oil Mill' means any mill manufacturing flour, condiment powder, oil whether run on electricity or oil, and (b) 'Rice Mill' means any mill wherein husk is separated from paddy and includes a mill wherein polishing of rice is undertaken whether run on electricity or oil.

2. No new Flour, Condiment, Oil or Rice Mill shall be established except within the areas notified under section 43-A of the Cantonments Act, 1924 and areas declared under rule 2(b) of Cantonment Lands Administration Rules, 1937.

3. No person shall establish or maintain Flour, Condiment, Oil or Rice Mill except under a license issued by the Board in the form annexed to these byelaws.

4. The building or premises in which a Flour, Condiment, Oil or Rice Mill is proposed to be installed or maintained shall:—

- (i) be at a distance of 50 feet from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrine and cesspits,
- (ii) be a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine with not less than 100 sq. ft. of space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure, and with not less than 3 feet moving space around
- (iii) be paved with concrete or cement, and
- (iv) have 5 feet high cemented walls with a roof properly ventilated and lighted.

5. The Rice Mill shall grind only food grains which are properly cleaned.

6. No engine or dynamo of more than 12 H.P. shall be installed. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building.

7. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of 25 to 30 feet height fixed to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.

8. The Mill shall be worked only between the hours of 6 A.M. to 6 P.M. and shall be open for inspection during this period by the Officers and servants of the Board who are authorised to do so.

9. The premises, apparatus and containers used, shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any contagious disease by the Cantonment Health Officer.

10. Application for the licence referred to in bye-law 3 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these bye-laws.

11. A breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues, after conviction for the first such contravention.

12. If the holder of a licence commits a breach of these bye-laws his licence shall be liable to cancellation by the Executive Officer and shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer, to his satisfaction.

BYE-LAWS FOR THE CONTROL OF LOUD SPEAKERS

S.R.O. 130, dated 11th Apl. 1961.—The following bye-laws for the regulation and control of Loud Speakers in the Morar Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Morar, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28), (38) and (39) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. These byelaws may be called "Morar Cantonment Bye-laws for control of Loud Speakers".

2. No person shall, except with the permission of the Executive Officer and on such conditions as may be imposed under these byelaws, make use of any loud speaker whether stationary or fitted to any motor lorry or other moving vehicle, within the limits of Morar Cantonment:

Provided that no such permission shall be necessary for the use of any loud speaker for any purpose which is official in the opinion of the Executive Officer.

Provided further that the use of any loud speaker for commercial or advertisement purposes may be allowed by the Executive Officer within such areas of the Cantonment and during such hours as may be fixed by the Cantonment Board from time to time.

Explanation—(i) In these byelaws 'Loud Speaker' includes any electrically or mechanically operated means of producing loud noise. (ii) The term 'Official' denotes "Use of Loud Speaker by any authority in the discharge of any Statutory duty".

3. All applications for obtaining permission shall be submitted to the Executive Officer who may, with due regard to public safety and convenience, in his discretion refuse or grant permission and in granting such permission he may impose any reasonable conditions in respect of the use of the said apparatus.

4. Any permission given or condition imposed under these byelaws may be withdrawn or varied by the Executive Officer where such withdrawal or variation appears necessary in the interest of the public.

5. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Executive Officer, made under these byelaws, may appeal to the Cantonment Board, within ten days from the date of communication of such order to him.

6. A contravention of any of these byelaws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first of such contravention.
